

Notes on the recorder

This note is:

Mask out these instruction and photocopy off one recorder diagram for every new note taught. Shade in the required number of fingers and write the name of the note on the diagram (see recorder fingering.pdf). Mount each new note diagram on a card and have them on display for every lesson as a reminder of correct fingering.